

Unit 2: The Living Environment

In this Unit students

2.1 know that an object is either living or non living

- 2.1.1 classify matter into living and non living
- 2.1.2 apply the seven vital functions as a means of identifying living things
- 2.1.3 classify organisms into plants and animals
- 2.1.4 classify animals into vertebrates and invertebrates
- 2.1.5 classify vertebrates into mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians
- 2.1.6 be able to use simple keys to identify organisms
- 2.1.7 identify differences between different habitats

2.2 reaffirm that there is a large variety of living things

- 2.2.1 explain the importance of classifying living things
- 2.2.2 identify some of the main animal groups and describe some of their features